

Dr. Debra T. Wiley is an educator and consultant, supporting a wide range of entities from college students, academic decision-makers, corporations, and religious institutions. Her work evolves out of her life experiences, formal education, and continued professional training. As an electrifying educator, Dr. Wiley has enriched the lives of individuals through her role as an advocate, professor, researcher, professional development trainer, motivational speaker, and coach. She continues to passionately engage a servant leader social reconstructionist's philosophy in exercising her voice and agency to pursue social justice and empowerment for marginalized individuals, particularly women and children, in both local and national arenas.

Dr. Wiley is a product of the Dougherty County School System, a graduate of Westover High School Class of 1980. She is on a lifelong quest of learning wherein her academic journey includes completion of Accounting and Data Processing Diplomas from Albany Technical Institute, the Nail Technology Program at the International School of Nailcare, Atlanta, Georgia, the Massage Therapy Program at Core Institute, Tallahassee, Florida, an Associate of Applied Science in Business from Darton College, and various certifications from Albany Technical College (Lean Six Sigma Green Belt, Quality Assurance Specialist, and Supervisory Specialist). She received her undergraduate education at Albany State University, where she concentrated her studies in the field of Speech & Theatre (Speech). After receiving her Bachelor of Arts Degree, she went on to earn her Master of Arts in Communication, Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Women's Studies, and Doctorate of Philosophy in Educational Studies from the University of Cincinnati in Cincinnati, Ohio, where she also served for several years in Student and Academic Affairs. Dr. Wiley is a 2016 graduate of the Higher Education Resources Services (HERS) Leadership Training Institute. She served as an Associate Professor in the College of Education (Teacher Education) at Albany State University (ASU). Most recently, she served ASU's Educational Leadership Department in the capacity of Program Manager for its University Principal Preparation Initiative.

Dr. Wiley is the founder and chief consultant of Divine Revelations, LLC, a general consulting, and training firm based in Albany, Georgia. She has been honored for her leadership, community service, and outstanding achievements by a number of diverse educational and business organizations.

Dr. Wiley is most thankful for the blessed gift of giving birth to two sons Jonathan Bernard and Evins Jermil-Keith Wiley who are managing life choices and creating life experiences that will ultimately lead to their divine purpose. She is also the proud Grandmother of four wonderful rays of light Gabriel, Chloe, Bella, and London. She is the daughter of Evins and the late Geraldine Trice, a sister to Audie Dwain, Kelvin Bernard, and Gwinetta LaVonda Trice. She is ministerial support for Good Shepherd House of Worship and maintains membership with the Greater Second Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church.